Aera

It has been proven that scents have impressive power to provoke emotions, rekindle memories and affect our mood and behaviour.

At Hardy Henry Services, we are convinced that a pleasant scent greatly contributes to enhancing the feeling of well-being in a place. From increasing sales to heighten value perception, a quality scent also expands brand recognition and enhance the customer experience. This is why places such as hotels, spas, offices, luxury retail stores and many more increasingly choose signature scents to add another dimension to their brand.

Introducing aera®

Aera has been specifically designed to diffuse quality scents to spaces of up to 100 m<sup>3</sup>.

With its Prolitec's patented AirQ diffusion technology, this scent diffuser is quiet, clean and leaves no messy residue.

Unique Scent Experience

Aera diffuses ultra-tiny molecules fill a space with even, liveable fragrance that lasts longer.

Superior Fragrances

Aera scents offer a subtle harmony of highest quality fragrance and essential oils, sustainably sourced and lovingly blended. Fresh familiar fragrances or evocative scents are used to create an experience that elevates the senses.

Ultimate Control

Aera is so simple to use. Plug it in, put in your fragrance and enjoy. Turn on and off, change, or adjust fragrance strength instantly.

Cleaner and More Economical

Less fragrance necessary in the air makes it hypoallergenic and long-lasting. It is also safe for domestic animals.

Using scents for your business

Olfactory marketing consists of diffusing scents to make a place more enjoyable, by connecting emotionally on deeper levels with your customers or colleagues from the second they walk through your door. This ultra-efficient marketing technique is recommended in shops, hotels, offices, gyms, spas, and all other places where well-being is essential.
